

Andrew Vial - Resume

Andrew Vial is a unique and fit veteran film actor who can play diverse characters in the age range 50-75 years. He had his first acting role in the 1959 Hollywood production 'On The Beach' directed by Stanley Kramer with Gregory Peck and Ava Gardner.

He has been trained in Comedy/TV Presentation at N.I.D.A., has starred in the TV film, 'Secrets Of The Jury Room'. He played the character of Brigadier General Jerry Singarok in the Parliament House/UNESCO/International Women's Day performance of 'Running With Rebels', and was the national face for the Telstra Billboard call-connect television commercial entitled 'Anyone Got A Pen?'.

His starring roles have been in 'Bridging Sydney Harbour', which was presented to Prince Charles and Lady Diana for the 1988 Bicentennial Concert. 'David In The Big City' with David Gulpilil. 'Terminus' directed by Sophia Turkiewicz. 'Jack And Neil' 'A Family Affair', and the documentaries 'Blue Mountains Canyoning' and 'At The End Of The Tunnel' plus a Chinese produced and directed documentary shot in Beijing in 2008.

He has also worked in 'Life Class' directed by Tom Cowan, 'Unbroken' directed by Angelina Jolie and a music video for band 'World Champion'. Latest starring roles are in the AFTRS film 'Level Seven', JMC Academy film 'Victims' and 'Sunshine Banshees'.

Andrew Vial has a distinctive voice which has been used to advantage in many voice-over productions. He has given Masterclasses in Acting in many countries Videorep, Sydney Australia, from 1980 on, Jaipur, India 2012 and 2013, Kathmandu, Nepal 2012, Nashik, India 2013, Batumi, Georgia 2013 and Cartegena, Columbia, 2015.

Among his television roles have been 'E Street' 'Murder Call' 'Neighbours' 'Home and Away' and 'Blue Murder' and he performed at the Sydney Opera House in Verdi's 'Aida'.

International film parts include 'Priscilla Queen Of The Desert' 'The Punisher' with Dolf Lungren 'Matrix' with Keanu Reeves, and 'Les Patterson Saves The World' with Barry Humphries.

He has presented at Film Award ceremonies in Malaysia, Vietnam, Taiwan, Japan, and Macau, and was a performer in dance at the Sydney Olympic Games 2000 Closing Ceremony.

He is an ex NSW champion Ice Speed Skater, a martial artist with 20 years experience, and an amateur ski racer. He holds a motorcycle and car licence and has sprinted Porsche cars in club events.

Email: andrewvial@andrewvialfilmproductions.com

Mobile: +61 41 113 297